AMENDMENT TO THE AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE TO THE COMMITTEE REPORT FOR THE RESOLUTION JUSTICE, IN CONTEMPT OF CONGRESS FOR REFUSAL TO COMPLY RECOMMENDING THAT THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES FIND WILLIAM P. BARR, ATTORNEY GENERAL, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF Y ISSUED BY THE COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY WITH A SUBPOENA DUL

Offered by Mr. Nadler

for the Legislation" the following: On page 17, insert before "II. Need protective assertion of executive privilege." No other evidence of the President's assertion of materials subject to subpoena." He then requested that "the Committee hold the subpoena in over the entirety of the subpoenaed materials," and that this was a "protective assertion" of request . . . the Attorney General will advise the President to make a protective assertion of executive privilege over the subpoenaed material, which undoubtedly includes material stated, "In the face of the Committee's threatened contempt vote, the Attorney General will be compelled to request that the President invoke executive privilege with respect to the abeyance and delay any vote on whether to recommend a citation of contempt for noncompliance with the subpoena, pending the President's determination of this question." covered by executive privilege." Today, during the Committee's meeting, the Committee received a letter from Mr. Boyd stating "that the President has asserted executive privilege Attorney General in contempt, and while negotiations were ongoing, On the evening before the scheduled date of the Committee's meeting to consider a the privilege. Mr. Boyd attached a letter dated the day of the Committee's meeting, from Attorney General William P. Barr to the President requesting that the President "make a Although Mr. Boyd clarified that this request was "not itself an assertion of executive privilege," he did explain that should the Committee decide "to proceed in spite of this Assistant Attorney General Stephen E. Boyd that the Committee received a letter from the privilege was provided. resolution holding the for investigating and formulating the advice to be given the President on the particular matter himself asserting the privilege; (4) it is not credible that "the entirety of the subpoenaed material" consists of "communications authored or solicited and received by those members The Committee has a number of concerns about the validity of this assertion: (1) the valid claim of privilege, including because executive to which the communications relate"; (5) it is not credible that the entirety of the materials of an immediate White House adviser's staff who have broad and significant responsibility privilege has been broadly waived in this case as a matter of law and fact; (2) the proposed assertion could have been made previously and at the very least, by May 1, 2019, the subpoena return date; (3) the correspondence does not contain a statement by the President purported protective assertion is not a

¹ In re Sealed Case, 121 F.3d 729, 752 (D.C. Cir 1997).